WASHINGTON.

Conkling Declines the Associate Justiceship.

Still Discussing the Chinese Bill—Pensions for President's Widows—Guiteau's Romantic Friend.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The probability is Conkling will refuse the Supreme Court nomination. One report says this is confirmed by the studied and anxious effort made by the administration that the President was not aware of Conkling's desire or intention before the nomination was made.

SARGEANT MASON.

A Washington special says that Sargeant Mason will either be acquitted on the technical ground that he had not actually entered on duty when he fired at Guiteau, or will be given a short sentence.

CONSUL TO CANADA.

The President has nominated Chas. Ewers, of Michigan, Counsul to Windsor, Canada, and withdrew the nomination of Jas. F. Swords, of the District of Columbia, to be Consul at Cadiz.

THE PEOPLE'S MONEY.

The House commerce committee favors the appropriation of $25,000 to telegraph daily at noon to all maritime cities of over 15,000 inhabitants Washington time.

PAGE'S RESOLUTION.

In the House Page presented a petition of citizens of the Pacific Coast asking Congress to pass a bill to incorporate the Maritime Canal Company of Nicaragua. Referred. Also the resolutions adopted at a mass meeting of the citizens of Sacramento, urging the suppression of polygamy. Referred.

PENSIONS FOR PRESIDENT'S WIDOWS.

Senator Teller reported favorably the House bill to pension Mrs. Garfield with an amendment, including Mrs. Polk and Mrs. Tayler, for five thousand a year. Davis introduced a bill for Logan, who was unable to be present, for the construction of the Illinois and Mississippi Canal.

In the Senate Brown opposed the Chinese bill on the grounds of alleged violation of good faith, until 4 o'clock and then proceeded to question the necessity for any restrictive legislation whatever. He said the number of Chinese now in this country is not large, and that Chinese immigration is decreasing. He therefore maintained that there is nothing alarming in the present situation and no need to pass any bill on the subject. He also argued that we would imperil our growing commerce with China by violating the spirit of the treaty as provided by this bill. Brown concluded his remarks at 4 P. M. and was followed by Teller, of Colorado, who advocated the bill. At the conclusion of Teller's speech Dawes sought the floor, but yielded to a motion to adjourn, which, in view of the knowledge that several other Senators also wished to prolong the debate, was agreed to, and the Senate at 4:45 adjourned till to morrow.

THE HAWAIIAN TREATY.

Hearing was resumed to-day before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on the proposed termination of th reciprocity treaty with the Hawaiian Islands.

SOME MORE SPECULATION.

It is generally believed at the Capitol that Conkling wrote to the President this morning declining his appointment. The general talk is that Conkling's declination will be made public to-day, and that Secretary Folger will be nominated to the Supreme Bench, and Conkling Secretary of the Treasury.

THE CONSULAR APPROPRIATIN BILL.

The Consular Appropriation bill passed by a vote of 22 to 27, the House having refused to strike out the item for Ministers abroad and their Secretaries, and also to insert instead a provision for the appointment of such consul and other commercial agents as the interests of United States citizens require.

SUPPORTING THE CHINESE BILL.

In the Senate, Slater spoke only ten minutes, and was followed by Cameron of Wisconsin, who also briefly but strongly supported the bill. George of Mississippi and Call of Florida then successively advocated the bill. Indications are favorable for reaching a vote this afternoon. At 1:45 P. M. the Senate resumed the consideration of the Chinese bill. Senator Slater took the floor in its advocacy.

Milton S. Latham's Funeral.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Milton S. Latham, formerly Governor and United States Senator of California, took place this afternoon at Author Memorial Church, Rev. Dr. Tiffany officiating. There was a large attendance. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: D. O. Mills, Gov. Low, C. A. Low, W. R. Garrison, S. P. Dewey and J. Belden. The remains will be taken to Tarrytown, N. Y The final interment will be in California.

Wants a Better Thing.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The President has received from ex-Senator Conkling his delination of the Associate Justiceship.

GUITEAU AGAIN.

Clara Augusta Davis, a Romantic Young Dunce.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—In the interview between Guiteau and Scoville yesterday the former assured the latter that he was sorry he had abused him on the occasion of his last visit, and promised not to offend again. Strange as it may appear, a woman was at the bottom of the affair which grew out of Scoville's withholding a letter from Guiteau. A young lady signing herself Clara Augusta Davis, residing in Hoboken, N. J., took the trouble to write thirteen closely-written pages of letter paper to the prisoner, in which she assured him of her devotion to his interests, and announced her intention of getting him out of jail if money could accomplish such an object. The prisoner's anger had cooled considerably and he seemed perfectly reconciled. He informed Scoville further that he intended to bring out another edition of his book, "The Truth," in which he still exhibits great interest, and will sell it to visitors at the jail for two dollars per copy. He exhibited a roll of greenbacks and said he had enough to insure the payment of any publisher who undertook the contract to do the printing and binding.

GENERAL NEWS.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

A Banking House Suspends.

BOSTON, March 6.—The banking house of Charles A. Sweet & Co. suspended this morning, causing considerable excitement in financial circles. The liabilities amount to between three and four million dollars. The firm will probably not resume, but will liquidate in full, paying dollar for dollar.

A Horrible Affair.

MEMPHIS, March 6.—Randy Mathis, colored, was to-day arrested for murder. He stole up behind Essick Polk, colored, and split his head open with an axe. He then dragged the body to a cotton pen, cut the limbs asunder and threw the pieces into a hole and buried them. Peck had tried to break up an improper intimacy of Mathis with his stepdaughter.

Powder House Blown Up.

MARQUETTE, Mich., March 6.—The Lake Superior Powder Company's packing house was blown up a 9 o'clock this morning, killing four men—Peter Doyle, Charles Hatch, Herman Rekstrom and another, name unknown.

THE FLOODS.

Twenty Thousand Destitute in Arkansas—15,000 in Mississippi.

MEMPHIS, March 6.—The river has risen four inches since yesterday. Great damage is expected.

MEMPHIS, March 6.—The river here is about stationary, but will doubtless commence rising again to-night, as it has been raining all day throughout this region.

LEVEES BROKEN.

A telegram from the postmaster of Vicksburg says the levee is broken all along the river, and many have been drowned.

A TERRIBLE CONDITION.

Commissioner Morgan said to-night that in twelve counties of Arkansas he had information of about 20,000 destitute people who would have to be fed by the government for at least forty days. The counties do not include those bordering on Red river, where great suffering is said to exist.

IN MISSISSIPPI.

Commissioner Hemingway, of Mississippi, said that the inhabitants of the counties in his State, to the number of 15,000, were in a like suffering condition. These counties in Mississippi are all above Vicksburg, and there are other counties below that city that have suffered. Apparently the donation of 190,000 rations made by the general government will fall far short of supplying the needy.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

San Francisco Death Rate.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Fourteen deaths were reported at the health office last Saturday, eighteen on Monday and nearly thirty to-day before 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

THE PISTOL.

A Duel in a Corral—Shot Through the Arm—Buried.

TUCSON, A. T., March 6.—A special from Charleston says that two men named A. B. Pike and Jesse Roscoe had a difficulty yesterday afternoon over a game of cards. Both men armed themselves, and meeting soon afterward in Swartz's corral, drew their revolvers and fired several times, resulting in Roscoe being shot through the arm, which will have to be amputated. Pike is under arrest, he making no attempt to escape.

EARTH TO EARTH.

Morgan, the man who was accidentally shot Saturday, was buried yesterday.

Weather Report.

Observations taken by the U. S. Army Signal Service at 8.15 o'clock last night are as follows: Barometer, 30.19; Thermometer, 52; dew point, 21; wind, NW; 3 miles per hour; clear. Maximum thermometer, 66; minimum thermometer, 39.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

Thanks Returned.

LONDON, March 6.—Personally the Queen's Secretary writes to Minister Lowell upon receipt of Secretary Frelinghuysen's congratulations upon the Queen's escape, that Lord Granville will convey the most hearty thanks of the Queen.

Hessy Helfmann Dead.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 6.—Hessy Helfmann, who, because of being enceinte, was respited from the execution of capital sentence for complicity in the assassination of the late Czar, died last week in child-birth.

Mining Casualty.

VIENNA, March 6.—Forty persons are reported killed by the falling in of a shaft in a mine near Toplitz.

DOWNEY CITY CULLINGS.

[Signal, Feb. 25.]

The peach trees on M. Harry Sesler's place are all in bloom.

The rain fall last Saturday, and the day following was about an inch and one-half.

There are 32 scholars in attendance at the Alameda school in Prof. Burke's room, and 38 in Miss Wall's room.

We understand that Mrs. Huse Dunlap, of Ranchito, has bought out the claims of the Texas heirs to the Standifer estate. The price paid was $10,000.

Joseph Steinart, of Downey, has sown this year, near Compton, about 500 acres in barley that is doing finely. The recent showers will insure a good yield.

T. R. Tierce has at last succeeded in getting an artesian well on his place, at a depth of 120 feet. The flow is not large, but amply sufficient for his use.

A very enjoyable little party was held on last Friday night at the New River school house. This pleasant affair was under the auspices of the young ladies of that district. One of its pleasant features was the nice lunch prepared by fair hands.

There is a movement on foot to start a cheese factory in Downey. This is a step in the right direction and if properly managed cannot fail to be a good investment for the originators, and a great benefit to the country at large. It is only a matter of time when all the land in Los Nietos, Norwalk and Artesia, that is not in vines and trees, will be sown in alfalfa, and the most of the farmers will turn their attention to dairying, so that several cheese factories can be supplied with all the milk they can handle. There is no danger of over-doing the business. Cheese is a thing that will always sell, and bring a fair price in the market.

ELECTRO-MAGNETIC BELT.

THIS IS THE same belt which is now manufactured by W. J. Horne, and which he is extensively advertising as the W. J. HORNE BELT. This Belt was invented and patented by myself. Afterward I assigned one half interest in this Belt to W. J. Horne, which he now owns in common with me. This Belt has taken two premiums at State Fairs; but as I have invented another BELT, of double the power of the HORNE & WEST BELT, and much superior to it in every respect, and which I make and sell for ONE HALF the cost of the old Horne & West Belt, I will sell my one-half interest, in the Horne and West Belt cheap for cash. FEDERAL APPOINTMENTS.

It is evident the recent appointment of Conkling to the Supreme Bench is distasteful to many Republicans. To reward the man who sulked in the campaign and then made war upon the Administration, has not about it that appearance of propriety that meets with the approbation of the honest masses of the party that elected Garfield, and smarting under the wrongs committed against them, those who sustained the late President during his contest with the malcontents and wept at his bedside as he lay prostrated from the assassin's bullet, are not slow to express their dissatisfaction. We sympathize with them, and cannot do less than say it was in very bad taste to appoint a man to an honored position who had but recently led a crusade against our Chief Magistrate—a crusade which may possibly be linked with his taking off—ere we had done with our mourning. In the nomination there has been a forgetfulness of the "eternal fitness of things."

The circumstance of this ripple upon the surface of the party is seized upon by the hungry and watchful Democracy as an evidence of the presence in the party of a leaven that shall continue to spread among its membership until a final disintegration takes place. But such reckon without reflection. A thought as to the material and history of the party will dissipate any such conclusion.

It was to prevent the extension of a system of terrible wrongs that suggested the organization of the Republican party, and it was its inflexible devotion to the great principles of right that nerved its arm during the days of the rebellion, and kept it at its work regardless of who commanded so long as "Forward!" was the watchword and battle-cry. And while the policy of the party is shaped in the interests of humanity it will continue to receive the support of the intelligent and patriotic of the land, regardless of the now and then unpopular appointments to minor offices. Those of the Republican party who labor and turn their backs upon the contemptible business of office-seeking, care little whether it is one man or the other who carries the banner, but they do care whether he trails it in the dust and soils its bright folds. So those who expect to see the grand old party of good works tumble to pieces because President Arthur has appointed to a high office a personal friend and hitherto prominent Republican, but who is just now unpopular with a portion of his party, will be doomed to disappointment.

To check the spread of the system of slavery and suppression of the rebellion was not all the work the Republican party was created for, and its mission is not ended. The enormous debt forced upon the nation by the authors of that rebellion is yet to be paid, and it is among the unfinished business now to see that it is paid, and further to see that the attempt to steal from the National Treasury money to pay the debt incurred by the Southern Confederacy is fraudulent. This work will keep the Republican party together, and when, if ever, it shall go down, it will leave the account for the work which called it into existence balanced up to the last cent.

IT would appear from our dispatches this morning that the Honorable Mr. Conkling doesn't propose to be laid upon the shelf of the Supreme Bench. His aspirations are higher, and it seems probable that he has bargained with his man Friday for a Cabinet position—that of Secretary of the Treasury. The double-breasted duffer whom accident has placed in the Presidential chair is about to ring up the curtain on another act in the insane drama begun by his partner—Guiteau.

THE ghost of that defrauded President will not down, but from behind every lamp-post, from every street corner and dark alley, it rushes forth to confront our esteemed contemporary. It disturbs his reveries by day and his dreams by night. Well, we'll give the old man another show. Til-den possess your soul in patience.

THE first question that comes up after reading the list of vice-presidents at the San Francisco anti-Chinese demonstration is, "Did any get away?" The list comprised nearly seven hundred names of prominent citizens of that city.

FRANCIS BLAKE, of the firm of Blake, Robbins & Co., San Francisco, is being urged to accept the Republican nomination for the Mayoralty of Oakland.

HON. J. M. DUDLEY, of Dixon, an experienced legislator and prominent farmer, is mentioned as a candidate for Governor on the Republican ticket.

A NOBLE WOMAN.

Margaret Hanghery died recently in New Orleans and was attended to her grave by a throng of people that, says a newspaper report, it were hardly possible to number. Even the babel of business was suspended on the streets and as the funeral cortege passed by every head was uncovered. And who was Margaret Haughery? She was a lady, but she never wore a silk dress or a kid glove. Yet Governors, ex-Governors and men in high places did her honor and were her pall bearers. Her life work had been to do good. She had lived and labored for the good of others, beginning with a cheap eating house down near the wharves, where she sold the steamboatmen a cup of coffee and a roll for five cents to keep them from spending a quarter for whisky. She was shrewd and her business prospered, and as it extended so did her charities, until at her death she had founded and was maintaining three orphan asylums. One of her orphans she had adopted as a son, and made a partner in the business, and the papers that announced her funeral stated that the business of "Margaret Haughery & Co." will be continued as heretofore. The charities this woman has dispensed are estimated to have amounted away up into the hundreds of thousands, and all the result of her own labors.

BY THE WAYSIDE.

A Times Reporter Takes a Bird's Eye View of Westminster.

[Westminster Continued.]

William Porter has forty acres; raises corn, alfalfa, and poultry; thirty to forty dozen eggs per week.

J. D. Bowley, from Springfield Mass., been here ten years; has forty acres,—wheat, corn, potatoes and poultry; apples, pears, quinces and peaches.

D. W. Lawton been here ten years, went through the discouragements and dark period of Westminster's career and is now convinced that the dawn has come and an unprecedented prosperity will gladden the hearts of its faithful settlers for many years to come. He has realized that a large, well selected variety of northern deciduous fruits and vines pay the best in Westminster and practices what he preaches as evidenced in the following report. On 20 acres of land has 800 deciduous fruit trees, 2,000 Muscat grape vines, besides corn and alfalfa for home use. He bestows great care on his orchard and evidently feels great pride in it, hence his unparalleled success in the production of fruits.

John Edwards is one of the firm believers in the ultimate prosperity of Westminster. He has a good home and it is well cared for. Has forty acres, raises barley and alfalfa principally; also deciduous fruits, keeps twelve cows and derives a good revenue from dairy produce.

Sampson Edwards, his brother, lives next to him, has been here eight years, is one of the best men for the interests of that settlement within it, has had unswerving faith in its productive capacity and proved it by purchasing large quantities of land of which he now owns 204 acres. Raises hogs, cattle, corn, potatoes and a large variety of deciduous fruits. Among other things he raised the following last season: 50 tons of hay, 1,500 sacks of barley, 2,500 sacks of corn, 120 hogs, 25 calves, 7,500 lbs of apples, nearly 5 tons grapes—pretty conclusive evidence of the soil's capacity. He believes that a system of drainage would render certain lands in the western part of the colony hitherto considered unproductive, and the lands which have been strongly impregnated with alkali, for years, can be made as productive as any by adopting a system of thorough drainage and cultivation.

Henry Pope rents 150 acres and 16 cows makes 50 pounds of butter per week, keeps about 150 poultry and finds them highly profitable; raises 7½ tons of alfalfa to the acre per season.

John R. Davis has a desirable home, has 30 acres of land, raises alfalfa, barley, corn, potatoes and fruits; is well satisfied.

Semi-Tropic California.

The publishers of this elegant horticultural journal are making a grand success of it, and it will rank with any of the popular magazines of the day. The engravings are as fine as those found in Harper's Weekly. The cut on the front cover tells the story at a glance of what can be grown in Southern California. The descriptive articles, letters and maps are invaluable, especially to those wishing to convey to friends in the East some idea of life in the Semi-Tropics. Circulating as it does by the hundreds east of the Rocky Mountains, it does more by its reliable information to encourage a substantial, healthy and wealthy class of immigrants to come to this region than any other publication in the State. While we are ignored by the up-country papers, the Semi-Tropic, California battles steadily for home interests and home industries. Knowing our wants more than any other journal can, it meets them, and satisfies all its readers.

The whole range of subjects of interest to Southern California is covered by the most practical writers in Los Angeles and adjoining counties.

Every town and settlement in this region receives full, fair and impartial treatment in its columns, which are always open to those who have something practical to say, and condense their thoughts into a few words.

South Bound Passengers.

The following passengers arrived in Los Angeles yesterday morning:

Mrs F A Knapp, Mrs Geo H Beach, Los Angeles; C E Brown, Pioche Dist. H Hamilton, Oakland; L M Williams, Texas; R H Carter, G H Horan, J H Foster, L J Rose, D A Bennington, Los Angeles; John Handon, Wm McCanady, L Goldman, S D Hinds, Arizona; F F Burnham and 5 ch'n, Sonora; D Reynolds, Alex Campbell, Tucson; W Behrendt, Mexico; W K Leveridge, Benson; T Von Borstel, Texas; E Shamp, Colton.

J. H. Foster, a New York merchant, is registered at the Pico House.

RIVERSIDE CULLINGS.

[From the Press and Horticulturist.]

Messrs. Seymore & Whitney, late of Elmira, New York, will soon erect in Riverside a machine shop and planing mill to do all kinds of mill work for house building in this section of the country. The exact location is not decided upon, but as soon as it is work will be pushed ahead rapidly.

Work is progressing satisfactorily on the tin mine shaft, which is now down about eighteen feet. The ledge becomes better defined as depth is reached, and the ore appears to be much better, and crude tests show well. Time will soon determine what is in the depths below.

David Turner is now planting the largest deciduous fruit nursery probably in Southern California. He has planted twelve tons of peach pits and two and a half tons of apricot pits. His nursery will cover thirty acres, and is located on the Colton road, just north of the Santa Ana river.

Last Saturday night and Sunday a good heavy rain visited Southern California. All along the coast the rainfall amounted to from 1¼ to ½ inches, and along the mountain ranges in the interior a like amount fell. Ground is now in excellent condition to work. Barley is growing finely, and a good crop of hay will everywhere be made.

Mr. J. G. Capron, one of San Diego's jolly solid citizens, was in the city Sunday, having come up on the steamer Orizaba, bound for San Bernardino.

H. C. Weiner, of the I X L Clothing House, is having new shelving placed in his store, and will have it thoroughly painted also, preparatory to receiving his spring goods.

A. J. Hazelton and A. W. Beatty, of Warren, Pa., are registered at the Pico House. Mr. Hazelton is the proprietor of a well known cough remedy and is looking about the city with a view to investment.

Major W. J. Tyus takes charge at the Pico House as day clerk to-day. The Major is an old hotel man, a genial and well mannered gentleman. Mr. Jules Vogelsdorff, as night clerk, still holds the fort. The Pico wouldn't be the Pico without him.

Dr. J. G. Bailey of Santa Ana made this office a pleasant call yesterday. He has come up with a large number of Santa Ana and Orange people to testify before the Grand Jury in the Reuter-Hulse trial. The doctor is one of the most enterprising and intelligent citizens of Santa Ana, and has accomplished much in the upbuilding of that thriving burg.

Il Trovatore To-Night.

The opera of Trovatore is one of the finest Italian operas extant. It is full of beauties. Those who can appreciate good music but who have never heard it, can have an opportunity to-night of enjoying its charms for the first time. But those of our people who have heard it before, and there are many such in our midst, will have an opportunity not only of hearing good music, but they can have the additional charm of listening to beautiful airs that they have heard before and which they can never forget. We were especially reminded of this while listening to the Miserere at a rehearsal a few nights since. The Miserere is one of the finest concerted pieces we have ever heard. It intoxicates one to listen to it. Its theme breathes of both love and religion. As it is but seldom that opera is given in Los Angeles, all our music lovers ought not to fail of being present at the concert to-night. Signora Tiozzo has a very rich and powerful voice, and the part she takes, of Azucena, is a very important one, and both she and Signor Antinori are thorough artists and know just how to put an opera on the stage in the most effective manner.

At Bakersfield.

Mr. Leslie B. Gillette, who is now traveling agent for the Continental Oil Co., drops a note to the TIMES from Bakersfield, from which we extract the following:

Last night we had a terrible snow storm while coming over Tehachapi summit. It put me in mind of a regular Dakota blizzard. When the storm was in full sway, as we were coming into Cameron Station, we run into the rear end of a freight train. As the express was going slow at the time, no one was hurt. The engine and caboose were pretty well mashed. It rained all night at Bakersfield and everything around here is looking green. The people are happy over the prospect of a good crop.

The Ancon's Passengers.

The steamer Ancon sailed from San Francisco yesterday morning with the following passengers—she is due here to-morrow morning: John Avila, W E Driscoll, Mrs Warren and daughter, W Judd, J Rosenthal, T W Goddard and wife, Mrs G O Perry, J P Cohn, A T Clark, J L Cannon, E H Burns, Miss M Sneath, H J Smith, D C Sullivan, R W Daniels and wife, H J Whipple, Mrs Stewart, Mrs Thompson, A R Kirkwood, H J Sneath.

Mr. W. W. Smith will visit the business men of Los Angeles the first of next week to solicit advertisements for the Citrus Fair edition of the Press and Horticulturist. He leaves to-day for that city, and we speak for him the kind attention of the friends of the paper.—Riverside Press.
